

HB 1818 -- Property Tax on Time-share Units

Sponsor:  Schad

This bill changes the classification of time-share units for property tax purposes from commercial to residential property based on a ratio of the nights the time-share units are actually rented compared to the overall nights available for use in that time-share development.